

ABOUT US:

Charitybikers is an organization of motorcycle enthusiasts and others who wish to engage in humanitarian work.

Our efforts will be characterized by care.

We want to focus on different groups and individuals we believe need our assistance.

Our efforts must be characterized by respect.

We must listen to those we wish to assist, and we will seek their participation in our work.

Our efforts will be characterized by equality.

Charitybikers is a political and religious neutral organization. Charitybikers is an autonomous and independent organization.